

I am in favor of the FCC requiring Video Assisted Speech-to-Speech as a form of relay. My best friend and his wife would benefit from VID-STS. They both have a speech impairment do to Cerebral Palsy. Additionally, VID-STS can provide access to emergency services not available to many potential users now.